DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND MEASURES.

A strict construction of the Constitution, and no assumption of doubtful powers. A Diplomacy asking for nothing but what is clearly right and submitting to nothing wrong. No connexion between the government and banks.

An ad valorem revenue tariff. No public debt, either by the General Government or by the States, except for objects of urgent! necessity.

No assumption by the General Government of the debts of the States, either directly or indirectly, by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands. No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government or by the States. A constitutional barrier against improvident State

The honest payment of our debts and the sacred preservation of the public faith.

A gradual return from a paper credit system. No grants of exclusive charters and privileges by special legislation to banks. No swindling corporations. No connexion between Church and State.

A preference for Democrats over Whigs for every office.

Acquiescence in the rule of the majority in all cases of party discipline. No proscription for honest opinions. Fostering aid to public education.
